

GREATER RUMFORD AREA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Lufkin School Museum Exhibits

The following listing is a summary of the various exhibits on display at the Lufkin School Museum, located on Route 2 in Rumford Center, Maine.

The Museum is open during the summer season from the first Saturday in June through the last Saturday in August. The hours for staffing are 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., however, special tours will be provided upon request to the Rumford Historical Society Archives.

The Museum is owned and maintained by volunteers from the Greater Rumford Area Historical Society, whose Archives office is located in the Town of Rumford's Town Hall, 145 Congress Street, Rumford, Maine 04276. The Archives office is open on Thursdays, year-round, from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., and can be reached at 207-364-2540 or by email at rhs@gwi.net.

Exhibits at the Lufkin School Museum include:

Antique Hand Tools for early carpentry, logging, and other older crafts;

Children's Toys and Furniture;

Farm Equipment used in days gone by;

Fire Department photos and firefighting tools (antique fire truck housed in rear building);

Kitchen Utensils for meal preparation;

Musical Instruments and former band photos;

Period Furniture from the Rumford area;

Rumford Schools' attire, awards, and trophies;

Textiles, handbags, hats, and other clothing pieces.

We hope you will find the above information of help when touring our Museum.

(Prepared by Jane W. Peterson, President, Rumford Historical Society, August 26, 2012)