

SPECIAL HEARING
December 21, 2017 5:30 p.m.
Rumford Falls Auditorium

1. Seth T. Carey Request for Action Regarding Administrative Warrant Relating to 105 Congress Street.

Mr. Brennick explained the contents of a letter dated December 8, 2017, regarding complaints of harassment relating to 105 Congress Street and accusations/ complaints against the Town Attorney. Ted Small, from Skelton, Tainter & Abbott representing/ counsel the Select Board for this hearing, regarding any legal questions. Warrant issued by Judge Dow; search warrant for the property at 105 Congress Street.

Mr. Chase made it clear that Mr. Carey was late for the meeting that was requested by him; it was rude to make the Board wait for him to arrive to begin proceedings.

Mr. Carey came to the podium to explain the reason for his tardiness; being in Portland for a Federal Court matter.

Mr. Carey spoke of the alleged harassment, which in his opinion seems personal, by the Town Attorney. This harassment, relating to a parking issue. He expressed many personal opinions, regarding the Town Attorney and her husband, as part of an investment opportunity in a hotel project, in Rumford, a revolving loan relating to that project, the "Big pile of rubble", that exists at the site, the appearance of the "gateway to Rumford." The difficulty of doing business in Rumford, attracting new businesses to Rumford.

Mr. Brennick asked what exactly Mr. Carey was requesting from the board. Mr. Carey asked; "the Town Attorney stop harassing a local business for no reason."

Mr. Brennick called Mr. Coulombe, CEO, to podium for questions and answers, relating to 105 Congress Street, Rumford, building codes and ordinances and building use laws, as well as, questions relating to Town Attorney acting as a legal guide, in the search warrant process.

Mr. Brennick asked questions relating to the "old Puiia's building" on Spruce Street, Rumford, and gaining access for inspections, etc. Mr. Coulombe responded that there have been no issues with gaining access to the building or getting relative questions answered and town requirements for buildings met.

Mr. Brennick called Chief Chase, to the podium for questions and answers, relating to 105 Congress Street, Rumford, building codes- fire, ordinances- fire and building use laws- fire, as well as, questions relating to the Town Attorney acting as a legal guide, in the search warrant process.

Mr. Brennick asked questions relating to the "old Puiia's building" on Spruce Street, Rumford, and gaining access for inspections, etc. Chief Chase responded that there have been no issues with gaining access to the building or getting relative questions answered and town requirements for buildings met.

Mr. Chase asked questions about Pennacook Falls Investment Group, relating to the plan for mitigation of the property on Spruce Street, Rumford.

Mr. Belanger asked questions relating to the likelihood of fire danger from frozen material. Chief Chase answered questions relating to frozen and or wet wood chips, as a fire hazard, in that material is combustible in nature. Also, explained concerns relating to building use permits and the required and necessary inspection of buildings under the town ordinance. Mr. Belanger also, asked questions regarding, obtaining of an administrative search warrant, from the Town Attorney in these matters and the authorization of such. Chief Chase answered questions and explained, in his tenure, that he has never been denied repeated requests for access to a building for inspection. Mr. Carey did allow access, knowing that he could be held in contempt of court.

Mr. Windover asked questions regarding recommendations for fire prevention. Chief Chase declined to answer the question, due to, not having the complete and final plan and processes for property/site use and intent and permits relating to.

Mr. Brennick made the board aware of the specific focus of this hearing and to not discuss issues outside of that focus that relates to decisions by other boards, etc.

Mr. Chase asked questions relating to potential hazardous gases that may be produced by decaying/rotting organic material. Chief Chase gave explanation of hazards and toxicities associated.

Mr. Brennick asked for any additional comments or questions.

Mr. Windover explained his use of bagged leaves surrounding his foundation and his disbelief of the fire hazard it could possibly cause. But, does understand the risks of these materials being inside a building.

Mr. Chase brought forth his experience as a career firefighter and the instances in which fire did combust in these situations of piled wood chips.

Mr. Carey questioned Mr. Chase's insight, experiences and credentials in relating to fire hazards.

Mr. Brennick reminded Mr. Carey that he must stick to the facts at hand. Not making insinuations concerning board members.

Mr. Carey spoke of his feeling of hypocrisy for his project as opposed to the Pennacook Falls Group project.

Mr. Brennick answered his questions, explaining that the Pennacook Falls Group has been very proactive in taking correct measures, permits, rules, regulations, requirements and etc. with the DEP, Town of Rumford and all related organizations associated with the property use and building, for the project. Mr. Brennick also, explained the falsehoods expressed by Mr. Carey, that there have been oversights, none which are substantiated. The rules, regulations, requirements and etc. apply for every project and anybody wanting to do business in Rumford. Mr. Brennick reiterated the board's position of safety to the Town of Rumford and its' residence.

Mr. Carey again, spoke of his perceived discrimination and the focus, regarding his project.

Mr. Belanger expressed his desire for these details to be worked out, as the Town and Board are pro-business.

Mr. Carey again, questioning the motives and character of the Board of Selectpersons, the Town Manager and the Establishment.

Mr. Brennick reminded Mr. Carey to stop with conjecture and opinions and focus on the matters related to this special hearing. He also, expressed the Board's desire for promoting and welcoming of new businesses in the community. Safety of the citizens and business owners is the priority of the Board.

Mr. Chase addressed Mr. Carey about following the rules, requirements and regulations for new business, and he will be supported.

Mr. Carey explained the reason for not changing building use. Also, his opinion, that Rumford is not pro-business or supportive of new business. He gave examples relating to his opinion, regarding to other businesses he has tried to bring to this community.

Mr. Brennick addressed and outburst from the audience.

Mr. Brennick asked for any additional comments or questions. None came forward.

Mr. Brennick made a motion to allow Attorney, Mr. Small to come forward to speak and answer questions regarding a motion or need for a motion, action or no need for action regarding this hearing. Seconded by Mr. Windover.

Mr. Chase addressed Mr. Carey, to go thru the proper channels for his new business venture, with Code Enforcement Officer and Fire Chief. There is no evidence that Town Attorney did anything improper in relation to the administrative warrant for, 105 Congress Street. Also, no evidence in the case of harassment of Mr. Carey by Town Attorney.

Mr. Carey questioned why Mr. M.P. Chase was able to rule in this hearing, as he is related to Mr. R. Chase showing "favoritism"; in Mr. Carey's opinion should recuse himself.

Mr. Chief Chase responded. Explaining that the board is in no position of authority to determine inspection criteria for Code Enforcement Office and Fire Chief. State Law gives the authority. Explaining no bias in the process, regulated by law. Expressed that if there had been a lack of efficiency in this process, the exorbitant costs and additional steps that have had to be bared by the Town of Rumford, as well as, in trying to get a legal/ lawfully authorized inspection of Mr. Carey's property.

Mr. Coulombe gave Mr. Carey all documentation for rules and regulations, ordinances and applications regarding 105 Congress Street. Mr. Carey's lack of compliance has caused these issues. As far as, the Pennacook Falls Group project, every rule, regulation and etc. has been addressed and followed thru to completion of requirements. Mr. Coulombe explained each and process and the completions.

Mr. Carey inquired about financial loans regarding the Pennacook Falls Group project and payments of such. Town Manager addressed these questions. Mr. Brennick addressed these inquires as well.

Mr. Small addressed the laws regarding these matters and the processes involved.

Mr. Brennick expressed the sentiments of the Board and the displeasure with the extensive financial costs associated with this proceeding, to the Town of Rumford. Mr. Brennick also, disagreed profoundly with Mr. Carey's claims and accusations of harassment by the Town Attorney and Mr. Carey's perceived notion of the Town Attorney initiating any process related to Town government.

Mr. Chase questioned the time frame for compliance. Mr. Coulombe answered Mr. Chase's questions at length and issues related to other boards.

Mr. Chief Chase addressed the violations that are in existence now.

Mr. Carey expressed his desire to work more effectively and efficiently with the Town of Rumford and asked the Board of Selectpersons to agree, when welcoming new business to the community.

Mr. Brennick summarized the hearing, results and the wishes of the Board of Selectpersons for future business.

5 minute recess, to prepare for the regular Board of Selectpersons meeting.
